

Louise Blades	Hira Syed
I am from hot rolls filled with chocolate and cheese.	I am from spicy curry, hot and salty.h
I am from light blue and red walls, always stained.	I am from dark purple and light purple walls with the paint peeling.
I am from wins and losses but always having fun.	I am from wins and losses but always having fun.
I am from reading projects complicated but fun.	I am from studying science that's never understood.
I am from sweaty palms and monster butterflies.	I am from blood, sweat and tears and climbing a mountain.
I am from snowflakes melting on the tip of my tongue.	I am from snowflakes melting on the tip of my tongue.
I am from cold snowy nights with blankets layered on top of my pajamas.	I am from chilly autumns with sweatshirts for warmth.
I am from sore fingers after a long day of fun.	I am from pop music and dancing in my bedroom.
I am from staring endlessly and waking up tired.	I am from deep sleeps never waking up.
I am from friends, love, and hope, and without these things I wouldn't be me.	I am from friends, love, and hope, and without these things I wouldn't be me.
